São Lourenço do Barrocal

Located in Alentejo, Portugal, in the foothills of medieval Monsaraz and nearby the Alqueva lake, São Lourenço do Barrocal is a carefully rejuvenated "monte alentejano", an ancient small farming village, working today as a luxury hotel, set amidst olive groves, holm oaks and vineyards.

Within a 1927-acres estate that has been in the same family for over 200 years, it comprises a winery for the creation of its first-class wines, two farm-to-table restaurants, a farm shop selling Portuguese crafts and the estate's own produce and a spa by Susanne Kaufmann. It also features two outdoor pools (adults and children), an organic vegetable garden and orchard, stables with a horse riding ring and a set of activities, only 2 hours distance by car from Sublime Comporta or from the vibrant capital of Lisbon.

- Two nights in a Farm Room (double occupancy).
- Welcome tea made with herbs from the garden served with local pastry.
- Breakfast for two in the restaurant with local artisanal bread and other local selected foods.
- Two dinner menus for two in the farm-to-table restaurant, serving ingredients sourced from the estate and its organic vegetable garden.
- A two-hour guided visit to the estate, with archaeologist Manuel Calado highlighting its megalithic heritage and connection with the seasons and the nearby region.
- A wine tasting of the estate's exclusive blends and visit to the winery for two.
- A picnic under a century old olive tree.
- An aromatic oil massage for two in Susanne Kaufmann Spa Barrocal, using only organic treats.
