São Lourenço do Barrocal

Located in Alentejo, Portugal, in the foothills of medieval Monsaraz and nearby the Alqueva lake, São Lourenço do Barrocal is a carefully rejuvenated "monte alentejano", an ancient small farming village, working today as a luxury hotel, set amidst olive groves, holm oaks and vineyards. Within a 780-hectares estate that has been in the same family for over 200 years, it comprises a winery for the creation of its first-class wines, two farm-to-table restaurants, a farm shop selling Portuguese crafts and the estate's own produce and a spa by Susanne Kaufmann. It also features two outdoor pools (adults and children), an organic vegetable garden and orchard, stables with a horse riding ring and a set of open-air pursuits, since nature continues to be the strong point of Barrocal. From sports activities to programs more suited to lyrical spirits or lovers of history and nature, there are endless options that value and support neighbouring suppliers and producers, provided by a local but sophisticated service.

Package includes (for 2 people):

- > 2 Nights accommodation in a Courtyard Room (double occupancy) with an upgrade to a Farm Room (upon availability).

- > 1 Dinner at the hotel's farm-to-table restaurant with organic ingredients from the estate.
